

Consider these verses...

“They devoted themselves to the apostles teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. All the believers were together and had everything in common. Every day they continued to meet together... they broke bread in their homes and ate together... and the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.”

Acts 2:42, 44, 46-47

“Day after day, in the temple courts and from house to house, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming the Good News that Jesus is the Christ.”

Acts 5:42

1. You will understand the Bible better in a GrowGroup.

If you've ever listened to a Bible teacher or preacher and wanted to stop that person and say, "But what about...?" or "I don't understand," then a GrowGroup is for you! Preaching and teaching is one way communication. You listen while the speaker speaks. It's fine for imparting knowledge but not as effective for personal application as is a GrowGroup. In a GrowGroup setting, you can ask questions, participate in a discussion of the text, and hear others share insights and illustrations of the truth you are trying to grasp. The Bible must be applied to your own personal situations, and that happens best in a GrowGroup.

2. You will begin to really feel like a part of God's family.

Most people who have been a part of a group say the greatest benefit is the close relationships and friendships that develop. They will frequently telephone each other during the week to share an urgent prayer request or an exciting answer. You'll discover that your needs and problems are not unique—we're all in the same boat. It helps to know that others are facing the same difficulties or have lived through them and learned spiritual principles in the process. Over fifty times in the New Testament the phrase "one another" is used to describe our relationship to other believers. We are instructed to love one another, encourage one another, pray for one another, accept one another, bear one another's burdens and build up one another. One of the best ways you can obey these commands is in a GrowGroup! We really do need each other.

3. Prayer will become more meaningful to you.

Many people are hesitant to pray in front of others, especially in a large church. In a GrowGroup you can learn to participate in prayer by having a conversation together with God. No one is pressured to pray, but as you become comfortable, you'll be able to pray sentence prayers and join in. There are many promises in the Bible related to group prayer. In praying together with a few others, we are drawn together and we find answers to the needs of our lives.

4. You will be able to handle stress and pressure better.

GrowGroups provide excellent support in times of crisis, change, and stress. You'll have a sense of stability and security knowing there are people who really care for you and are committed to standing with you. When someone loses a job, or a family member has an extended illness, or a mother needs a babysitter—these are practical needs that can be naturally taken care of through your GrowGroup. Many people in our church could testify that they would not have made it through a difficult time if it hadn't been for the support of their group.

5. You will have a natural way to share Christ with friends, relatives and work associates.

It may be that some of your friends who don't know the Lord wouldn't be caught dead in a church. They have a preconceived idea, and just the thought makes them defensive. But those same people may be open to an invitation to a casual Bible discussion in a home or office setting. In a GrowGroup, your unbelieving friend can ask questions and express honest doubts without feeling "put on the spot." When your friend sees the love and warmth and honesty of your group, it will make him more receptive to the Good News.

6. You will develop leadership skills you never knew you had!

The Bible teaches that every believer is given certain talents or "gifts" to benefit others in the family of God. Unfortunately many Christians remain as Sunday morning spectators all their lives. As you share and participate in a relaxed GrowGroup setting, you'll discover your confidence and self-esteem rising. This will help out at work, at church, and in every other relationship.

7. You will deepen your understanding of worship.

Many believers mistakenly think that worship can only happen on Sunday morning in a large group. Worship happens anytime we focus on God. Sometimes that happens best in a smaller group in praying or discussing things together.

8. You will be a New Testament Christian!

The book of Acts is very clear about how God intends for his people to grow and have their needs met in the church. We will never be able to hire enough professional pastors to meet all the individual needs in our family. God never intended for it to be that way!
